VOL. 3. NO 11

LOMOND, ALBERTA, FRIDAY, OCT. 18, 1918.

$1.00 PER YEAR.

LOCALETS

C. R. Westgate, of Bow City, has received word that his son, Charles, serving on a machine gun section in France, was killed in action on Sept. 26th. Further particulars will be published when available. Readers of THE PRESS will call to mind the interesting letters from him published early in the spring.

Clay Delaney writes that he is always glad to get THE PRESS and that he is now at Bramshott camp for advanced training.

Mrs. Teskey and the school staff returned on Monday after spending the week-end in the city.

C. R. Adams started a large herd of young cattle towards his ranch north Bassano, on Thursday.

L. C. Walkey of Acme spent the holiday in Lomond as the guest of his brother, Dr. L. W. Walkey.

Frank Wilson was down from the north country and a business caller in town on Saturday last.

Born, near Lomond on Sunday, Oct. 13th., to Mr. and Mrs. Olaf Moen, a son.

Mr. Moore, blockman for the Massey-Harris Company, was up from the Hat this week giving the local agency a final once-over for the year.

Mrs. J. Munro has been called east by the illness of her parents.

Eugene Donily, the eight-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ora Donily, was severely kicked in the face by a colt last Saturday morning, the cut requiring six stitches.

Mr. and Mrs. John Paisley have moved into town for the winter months.

The dance last Friday drew a fair crowd and provided a good time.

Jack McArthur and wife are down from the Stettler country on a business trip, coming down by motor.

CHURCH NOTES

The Travers church was opened for worship on Sunday, the 13th. A large number of people turned out to take part in the services. The decorations were in keeping with the season and Thanksgiving hymns were sung. It would be good to see a crowd as large every Sunday.

On Wednesday a Thanksgiving supper was served to about as large a crowd as could be accommodated. From seven to nine the waitresses were busy. After supper a program consisting of songs and recitations was rendered and a very enjoyable time was spent.

The Thanksgiving service on Sunday last was well attended. A service suitable to the season was held, and we all felt that there was much to be thankful for.

CHRISTMAS CHEER FOR THE BOYS AT THE FRONT

The men of Lomond demonstrated a spirit of generosity when it came to providing Christmas comforts for the boys serving overseas. While the amount is more than required, the surplus will be very useful to the Red Cross. $126.00 and 500 cigarettes is the result of the canvas, as shown below.

NOTES

What are you doing about the Victory Loan? Perhaps you can spare but $50, perhaps a hundred, or better still, maybe you can take up a bond of the higher denominations. It's a good business proposition and you cannot afford to turn your own country down. The department has arranged with this loan to issue an actual bond to the purchaser at the time and place the money is paid over. Thus, the delay accompanying the former Victory Loan will be entirely eliminated.

The public questions why the German peace proposals are all directed toward President Wilson. So far it must be acknowledged that the other allies have done most of the fighting while President Wilson has done most of the talking. At that, we have got to hand it out to the President when it comes to talking business with the Hun.

o o o

The high finance of the boom days is causing a good deal of embarrassment to the tax roll of Bassano and other small towns in the West.

o o o

If you read the Red Cross annual report you will locate a very commendable idea in systematic donations. Two acres of wheat may not mean a very great sacrifice to many farmers but it would mean a good deal to the Red Cross treasury.

o o o

The most effective reply to the German peace proposals is the continuation of the sledgehammer military drives on the several fronts.

o o o

The Union Government has taken drastic measures to control labor disputes affecting war industries. If adequate provision is made for the adjustment of grievances, all well and good, for Canada is over-burdened with the strike nuisance.

o o o

Vulcan can now lay claim to being a real live town since experiencing a bit of frontier gun play.

LOMOND, ALTA.

Take This 15 to 25 Per Cent.

---it's what we saved you on our advanced buying. A year ago we anticipated the needs of this district and, knowing the markets as we do, we determined to save ourselves and our customers against the 25 to 35 per cent. increase on this year's goods.

Winter goods of real quality are about as plentiful as hens' teeth, and the prices have gone out of sight. But, in common with a very few other stores in this country, we have now got the goods at a fair price---and the goods we still stand back of.

Penman's Sweater Coats

Heather mixture, with military collars, cotton and wool in medium weight, a good garment to wear under a smock, all sizes, at $2.75

Penman's Worsted Yarn Sweater

This is one of the best sweaters made by Penman's this year. The collars, cuffs and facings are pure wool, the body is 70 per cent. wool and the yarn twisted hard so as to give the wear. Extra value, bought on last year's market, all sizes, at $5.50

Other lines of cotton an wool and wool mixtures, at from $1.75 to $5.00

Many lines of pure wool sweaters at from $6.50 up.

Winter Underwear, our own brand

Heavy elastic ribbed, a good warm garment, very durable and unshrinkable, mostly wool, a little cotton, all sizes, per garment $2.00

Heavy Cord Pants for Men

This is the only corduroy pant we have ever handled to any extent without having trouble. There are very few real good corduroys on the market and this one is the daddy of them all. We have yet to hear one complaint on this line and we have sold in Lomond 112 pairs inside a year. Price $6.00

Men's Wool Pants---Hewson Tweeds.

Pure Wool Sox, Gloves and Mitts.

Mackinaw Coats, the "Kozycoat" Brand, in a class by themselves.

Newest Shapes in Winter Caps, some extra fine cloths.

COMMUNICATIONS

To the Editor,

THE LOMOND PRESS.

In your issue of two weeks ago I was glad to see the hospital question was taken up. We who have been out here for a number of years will not question the need of a public hospital.

If we are to have a public hospital let the public be invited to all meetings to discuss and vote on this issue. Now, the government has seen the need of this and has framed and put the Hospital Act into force, and it is surely worth while enquiring into.

It takes money to build and more to operate a hospital. Can this be done by voluntary subscriptions. With a municipal hospital you are sure of your revenue, and many more advantages the new act embraces.

If neither of these are feasible at present, why not the municipality get a nurse from the Victorian Order of Nurses or some similar organization? These nurses are proving an immense boon in newer districts. While not taking the place of a hospital, would fill a long-felt want in this district.

Not having had a visit from one of the committee, could you through your columns give the public more information? Or would the Board of Trade publish the minutes of their meetings re the hospital.

Yours truly,
GORDON ELLIOTT.

Lomond, Oct. 12th., 1918.

LOCALETS

Miss Wilson was over from Champion on Monday spending the holiday with her sister, Mrs. Walkey. She was accompanied by Miss Holmes.

O. Stone, formerly of the local bank staff but now of Lethbridge, spent the holiday with friends in town.

Sunday's peace bulletins brought on spirit of celebration, even though the Monday dispatches dampened the proceedings considerably. The back alleys were cleared of the old boxes and barrels and the band brought out to serenade beside the bonfire when darkness came on. At any rate the spirit of the public was very commendable. Don't tear down the flags and bunting too soon, for perhaps they will be really needed sooner than you think.

Mr. Cousins, organizer for the Victory Loan campaign was in town on Tuesday night arranging for the local canvas. L. M. Swain was re-appointed to take charge of the local work.

Mrs. A. Parker and Floyd Blake are both reported to be able to be up and around.

There are two important issues before we Canadians just now—the Victory Loan and Spanish influenza.
